Finalists for Greater Moncton's Top 20 Under 40 are revealed

Forty individuals under the age of 40 have been named finalists for the first Greater Moncton's Top 20 Under 40. The event organized by the Chamber of Commerce for Greater Moncton and the Hub City Young Professionals Network will recognize 20 individuals on May 22, 2019, at the Dieppe Arts and Culture Centre.

The finalists are all making a difference in the community. Their field of expertise is varied, but they all play a leadership role whether it is in business, politics, the arts, non-profits, education, the environment, health care or public service.

Chamber of Commerce CEO, John Wishart, said that all candidates are successful in their sector, but what separates the finalists is their commitment to make their community a better place to live.

"The forty finalists selected have already an accomplished career at a young age, but where they are distancing themselves from others is with their engagement in shaping our community's future", said Wishart.

The nomination process was open online until March 29, 2019, and we received 80 nominations. The Greater Moncton's Top 20 Under 40 Advisory Board reviewed all candidates and selected the name of the 40 finalists that we are revealing today.

Patrick Richard, founder of the Hub City Young Professionals Network, mentioned that the selection process was rigorous for committee members. The candidates submitted very complete and detailed nomination files.

"We were not surprised to receive all these excellent nominations, we knew that these change-makers existed in our region but even so, our organizations were very impressed with the quality and the caliber of the candidates, said Richard.

"Selecting only 40 finalists was extremely difficult", he added.

Our first ever class of Greater Moncton's Top 20 Under 40 will be revealed at our Recognition Reception on May 22nd, at the Dieppe Arts and Culture Centre. The event will start at 6 pm with a networking reception, followed by a recognition ceremony, where the 20 winners will be announced. Tickets are on sale now at ccgm.ca or by phone at 506 857-2883.
