The list of finalists – chosen by an independent panel of judges – was released today by the Chamber of Commerce at a press conference held at the St. James Gate Event Room in Moncton.

"The Greater Moncton business community is one of the most vibrant and dynamic in the province and the quality of nominations reflects that important trait of our community, Chamber CEO John Wishart said.

"Once again, entrepreneurs and business owners of our region responded with a tremendous participation in the nomination process of the Business Excellence Awards."
